Plett Panters award top walkers

FOUR short of 100 members of the Plett Panters hiking group attended their annual prize-giving braai at Plett Angling Club on November 29.

Honorary Panters leader Robyn Eidelman monitored the distance hiked by every member during the year and presented certificates of merit to the top 10 hikers, as well as prizes to the four Panters who hiked furthest during 2018.

The prize for fourth place (Jos Coninx - 352km) was a R300 meal voucher from Nineteen89 restaurant; third place (Trish Coninx - 403km) scored a R900 voucher for two adults to visit Birds of Eden, Monkeyland and Jukani Wildlife Sanctuary, plus a R350 unisex hairdressing voucher from Ninja Scissors.

Runner up Di Tuffin (418km) won a R900 voucher for two to the three above-mentioned venues, as well as a R500 Cape Union Mart voucher and breakfast for one at Lookout Deck.

Top hiker of the year Wally Lake (441km) received a two-night stay for four people at the Opstal De Hoop Village, which is part of De Hoop Nature Reserve, worth R6,342 as well as breakfast at Lookout Deck.

In addition, Wally won

DRIFT AWAY: The floating trophy created by John Duncker from driftwood on a wild olive base a floating trophy, created and kindly donated by John Duncker of Plett. John has produced many interesting artworks out of driftwood, some of which can be viewed at The Global Village.
